

Year 10: ASK Yourself!

Subject: Music

Unit: AoS1 Musical Forms and Devices

	Launching 1-2	Developing 3-4	Progressing 5-6	Mastering 7-9
S skills
	I am starting play and compose music using basic forms such as binary and ternary. I can use devices such as repetition, sequence and simple chord progressions.	I can play and compose music using basic forms such as binary and ternary. I can use devices such as repetition, sequence and simple chord progressions. I am starting to use further forms such as Rondo and Variation.	I can confidently compose in a variety of forms using appropriate chord progressions in major and minor keys using a range of chords and some inversions. I can use a variety of rhythmic and melodic devices.	I can expertly compose using a wide range of musical forms, appropriate chord progressions in major and minor keys using the full range of chords, including inversions and dominant 7 th s. Can use a variety of melodic and rhythmic devices.
K knowledge
Harmony	I need to know how structural forms and devices have been used in music of the Western Classical Tradition. I need to be able to use these in my composing work.	I know some of the key structural forms and devices used in music of the Western Classical Tradition such as Rondo and Variation. I am starting use these in my composing work.	I know a wide range of structural forms and devices used in music of the Western Classical Tradition such as Rondo, Variation and Minuet and Trio. I am starting use these and melodic, rhythmic and harmonic devices in my composing work.	I understand and can apply a wide range of musical forms and devices when I am listening, composing and performing. I understand how melodic, harmonic and rhythmic devices can be used when composing music and recognise their use in other composers work.