

Year 7: ASK Yourself!

Subject: Geography

Unit: Weather, Climate and Ecosystems

	Launching	Developing	Progressing	Mastering
 S skills
	I need to be able to use meteorological terms effectively. I can identify places on maps. I can work in a group.	I can partially use meteorological terms and use measuring equipment effectively. I can identify places on maps. I can work effectively in groups.	I can confidently use meteorological terms and use measuring equipment. I am able to locate places on a map. I work effectively in groups using enquiry based skills.	I can expertly use meteorological terms and use measuring equipment. I am able to locate places on a map. I work effectively in groups using enquiry based skills. I can formulate hypothesis.
 K knowledge
	I need to know what causes our weather and how this can affect us. I can say what climate is. I can state what climates different places have.	I know what causes our weather and how this can affect us. I can describe what climate is. I can describe what climates different places have.	I confidently know what causes our weather and how this can affect us. I can describe what climate is. I can describe what climates different places have and why they have them. I understand how human and physical processes interlink.	I understand what causes our weather and how this can affect us. I can explain climates of different places and why the differences occur. I understand how human and physical processes interlink on a range of scales from local to global.