

Year 7: ASK Yourself!

Subject: Geography
Unit: People Everywhere

	Launching	Developing	Progressing	Mastering
 S skills
	I need to be able to collect information from an atlas. I can draw the right kind of graph including population pyramids. I can read facts about countries and use them in my work. I can work in a team.	I can partially collect information from an atlas. I can draw the right kind of graph including population pyramids. I can partially read and present data using graphical skills. I can partially understand relationships between countries. I can work well in a team.	I can confidently collect information from an atlas. I can draw the appropriate graphs including population pyramids. I can confidently read and present data using graphical skills. I can confidently understand relationships between countries and their different features. I can work well in a team.	I can expertly collect information from an atlas. I can draw the appropriate graphs including population pyramids. I can expertly read and present data using graphical skills. I can expertly demonstrate a clear understanding of relationships between countries and their different features. I can work well in a team.
 K knowledge
	I need to understand where there are more people living in the world. I am able to say some reasons that affect where people live. I can say what migration is. I may be able to suggest some reasons for people moving.	I understand where there are more people living in the world. I can describe some reasons that affect where people live. I can describe what migration is. I can suggest some reasons for people moving.	I understand where there are more people living in the world and can describe the reasons for this in detail. I can explain some of these reasons that affect where people live. I can confidently describe what migration is. I can explain some reasons for people moving and the impacts on the receiving and losing countries.	I understand where there are more people living in the world and can explain the reasons for this in detail. I can explain the reasons that affect where people live. I can confidently describe what migration is. I can explain some reasons for people moving and the impacts on the receiving and losing countries in detail.